

JOIN IN AND HAVE FUN – VOLUNTEER ROLES IN THE PEAK DISTRICT
Have a talented friend who fits the bill with any of the roles below? Please share!

DARK PEAK

PEOPLE'S LANDSCAPE ART INSTALLATION TRAIL 'BE KINDER' VOLUNTEERS

Volunteer Manager: Katherine Clarke

Fancy being able to tell friends you have a Jarvis Cocker connection? From July to mid-September we need folks to help with our arts installation trail 'Be Kinder'. The two main volunteer roles are the Be Kinder Art Trail Experience Maker and Be Kinder Visitor Experience Patrol Rangers. Both roles will have elements of helping to look after the trail & surroundings and engaging with the public. This is going to be a high-profile event and your chance to bring Peak District history to life while looking after the landscape and delivering key countryside messages. Contact Katherine.Clarke@nationaltrust.org.uk

PATROL RANGER KINDER EDALE

Volunteer Manager: Iain Thistlethwaite

Patrol Rangers help the Dark Peak Rangers monitor a defined area of the estate and undertake condition surveys as part of the Moors Vision and plan. They are keen walkers and love nothing better than navigating challenging terrain in all seasons. You help identify areas that need our attention, possibly carrying out a few simple repairs yourself in the course of your travels. Contact Deborah.Webster@nationaltrust.org.uk

WALKS LEADER

Volunteer Manager: Katherine Clarke

The Dark Peak walks team are going from strength to strength! With more visitors than ever joining in they need some new recruits! You'll be a confident walker who likes nothing better than delivering a great experience. Contact Katherine.Clarke@nationaltrust.org.uk

LONGSHAW

WOMEN'S WALK LEADER/SUPPORTER

Be part of an exciting and innovative EAL women's group project

Volunteer Manager: Rachael Lyon

Full training provided – Longshaw base

Are you someone who enjoys walking and can make everyone feel welcome? An EAL Walks Leader/Supporter is someone who is able to work with people with English as an additional language (EAL), has a passion for Sheffield Moors area and the enthusiasm to lead or assist easy guided walks. You will share your enthusiasm for the National Park, wildlife and landscape by devising & leading walks and delivering simple activities (tree ID, Bird spotting). These are fortnightly walks will support a group of Sheffield women to access the countryside while gaining confidence and improving their wellbeing in the process. For more information contact Deborah.Webster@nationaltrust.org.uk or Rachael.Lyon@peakdistrict.gov.uk

HAYMEADOW MONITORING RANGER

Volunteer Manager: Mark Bull
23 May at Longshaw – 10:00 am start

Monitoring is one of the crucial ways rangers manage, maintain and evaluate the health of our landscape. Can you offer a few days per week between June and July to help? No experience required, as full training will be provided at workshops on 23 May and 5 June. For more information contact: Mark.Bull@nationaltrust.org.uk

LONGSHAW DRYSTONE WALLING TEAM

Volunteer Manager: Mark Bull

Would you like to be part of a small team of Longshaw based volunteer drystone wallers? This new team, who will work collectively once or twice a week, will help rebuild the increasing number of gaps caused by aging walls, cars, wildlife and human interference. No experience required, full training will be provided. For more information, contact: Mark.Bull@nationaltrust.org.uk

VISITOR EXPERIENCE EVENTS AND 'DAY MAKER'

Volunteer Manager: Jenny Gerrans

If you enjoy meeting people and being out and about in the countryside this may be the role for you. You'll be the National Trust's ambassadors across Longshaw Estate, welcoming visitors and helping them make the most of their day out. You thrive in a busy atmosphere and like nothing more than offering great service and making someone's day!

WHITE PEAK

BAKING ASSISTANT

Volunteer Manager: Alex Forman

Imagine a world without cakes! Baking Assistants understand the importance of a little sit-down, and help visitors to relax, refuel and refresh during their visit to Ilam Park. You'll get all the training you need to help out. This is a warm, friendly team where everyone is welcome!

DOVEDALE BARN RETAIL AND WELCOME VOLUNTEER

Volunteer manager: Roxanne Cooper or Fiona Harrower

Dovedale Barn is our seasonal barn on wheels. Located in beautiful Dovedale, you'll never have time to be bored as you meet, greet and support visitors to enjoy their day. In quiet moments you can enjoy birdsong and perhaps even catch sight of a kingfisher in action! Whether you can give a few hours or a few days a week, we'd love to hear from you!

FLEXIBLE LOCATION

PROJECT SUPPORT COORDINATOR

Are you organised and enjoy information gathering?

Volunteer Manager: Martin Dowson

Are you a Sherlock Holmes when it comes to the internet? We would like to gather names, addresses and phone numbers of local businesses from the internet. We hope to build support for projects like Woods for the Future and this is the first step to get there. The role can be flexibly based, even researching from the comfort of your own home if you'd like! For more information contact Martin.Dowson@nationaltrust.org.uk
